

Chesil Bank Pre-School Trustee Induction Guide

Welcome

Thank you for choosing to volunteer as a trustee of Chesil Bank Pre-School. We extend a warm welcome and hope that your volunteering with the charity will be enjoyable, fulfilling and rewarding.

Our trustees are extremely important to us. The charity thrives thanks to the dedication of the many different people who work with us - our volunteers, our members and our employees. As a volunteer, we value the contribution of your time and skills, as they are an essential ingredient to our continued success.

Volunteering as a trustee of Chesil Bank Pre-School can also have many rewards and benefits. It offers you the opportunity to become more practically involved in the care and education of your child; and it is widely recognised that when parents play an active role, their children can achieve more. You will also have a chance to update existing skills and learn new ones. This can have valuable long-term benefits when applying for jobs or undertaking further training.

We are pleased to introduce this trustee guide to provide you with some valuable information: if you are considering volunteering as a trustee for the charity, or as part of your induction process.

A brief history of the charity

Chesil Bank Pre-school is a well-established charity run Pre-school registered in 2003. Located in the lovely setting of Strangways Village Hall, the old school has two spacious play rooms, and a wealth of resources. There is a large enclosed outdoor area containing a climbing frame, play house, large sandpit, and upstairs veranda, ride on bikes and a wide range of resources. The Pre-school also has access to the allotments situated in Chapel Lane and runs twice weekly forest school sessions. We operate a free flow system where children can choose to play either indoors or outdoors uninterrupted for the majority of the session.

Play leader and safeguarding lead: Sharon Pugh (Early Years and Forest school Leader, Level 5)

Deputy Play Leader and safeguarding second: Laura Farnham (NVQ 3)

Early Years Practitioners: Marj Hutchings)

Administrator: Phillipa Gowans

It also has a well skilled committee. They are:

Chairperson: Laura Farnham

Treasurer: James Sharpe

Secretary: Crystal Riley

Safeguarding Officer: Laura Farnham

Committee Members:

Sam Bowen

Jess Craig

Polly Ruffman

Sam Mulligan

Sharon Pugh also attends committee meetings and participates in decision making except where there is a direct conflict of interest (for example when deciding salaries and budget setting)

Appointing trustees

Chesil Bank Pre-School is committed to engaging a diverse committee of trustees, which reflects the society in which we operate. The trustees of Chesil Bank Pre-School are elected each year at the charity's Annual General Meeting (AGM) [or may be co-opted onto the committee at the invitation of the trustees, following the AGM]. Individuals over the age of 18 years who have either family or affiliate membership with the charity are eligible to be elected as a trustee. A few individuals may be disqualified from acting as a trustee of a charity; such as those that have an unspent conviction for an offence involving deception or dishonesty, or are bankrupt (unless they are discharged). If you are unsure if you are eligible, you can contact the Charity Commission for further guidance (www.charity-commission.gov.uk). The trustee role is also subject to suitability checks by Ofsted (www.ofsted.gov.uk), which include an enhanced criminal records check. Having a criminal record will not necessarily bar you from volunteering with us. This will depend on the circumstances and background to the offence(s) disclosed.

The role of the trustees

The trustees (often referred to as the management committee, committee members or directors) are jointly responsible for the effective running of Charminster Pre-School and making decisions regarding the management of the charity in order to achieve its aims. The trustees have an overriding duty to act lawfully and in the best interests of the charity and its beneficiaries – the children.

The Constitution is the legal governing document for our charity. It outlines the rules that the trustees must follow to run the charity properly and legally. A copy will be made available to you as part your induction.

Our trustees may have various roles and duties. The officers (Chair, Treasurer and Secretary) are usually given certain key tasks to perform to help ensure they are carried out effectively. However, the trustees are a team and must support one another so that no one person has too much work or responsibility. An outline of the trustees' responsibilities is provided within the attached Trustee Role Description and should be updated as necessary to reflect the agreed allocation of tasks across the committee. Certain administrative tasks may be delegated to employees of the charity, where appropriate. However, as the trustees, you remain responsible for directing and managing their work.

Trustee induction

As a volunteer you will not be issued with a contract of employment. There will be an expectation that you will meet the role's requirements – as a charity trustee, an employer and a registered childcare provider. To ensure that this happens, you will be given a realistic preview of what to expect from the role before you start volunteering and provided with the following information during your induction process:

Your first task as a trustee is to use the available information to make yourself aware of your various responsibilities. A good place to start is to familiarise yourself with the charity's Constitution, which will answer many of the common queries about how the charity operates, and the Early Years Foundation Stage, which outlines the requirements for the childcare provision.

Chesil Bank Pre-School runs according to a Pre-school Learning Alliance Constitution, the trustees can contact the Alliance Information Service team if they have any questions on running as a charity. It is also important to have a good handover. If available, previous trustees will give you clear direction or training on the charity's systems and procedures and may be invited to initial meetings to provide advice and support.

Managing the finances

An important part of your role as a trustee will be to ensure that the charity's finances comply with relevant financial requirements and are managed in accordance with the Constitution. This involves keeping accurate accounting records, preparing the accounts at the end of the financial year and, in some cases, having them auditing or examined by an independent person to ensure the money is appropriately accounted for. The accounts must be accompanied by an annual report, prepared by the trustees, describing the activities of the charity in the year and providing information about the management and operations of the charity.

The accounts are independently examined by Edwards and Keeping.

Managing employees

Chesil Bank Pre-School employs a team of qualified and experienced Early Years' Practitioners to manage the day to day running of the childcare provision and an administrator and accounts administrator to assist with the effective the administration of the charity. As a trustee of Chesil Bank Pre-School you will be one of the employers of the staff who work for the charity and must comply with the laws on employment. These will involve you fulfilling responsibilities to your employees (by respecting their legal rights) and to the Government (by operating PAYE and other systems). You will also need to work together with your fellow trustees to supervise the work of your employees and to put appropriate systems and controls in place to ensure that tasks are carried out correctly and meet legal requirements.

Charity Commission registration

Chesil Bank Pre-School is registered with the Charity Commission, which is the body that regulates charities in England and Wales. Trustees must complete an annual return for the Charity Commission each year within 10 months of the charity's financial year-end, to ensure they are kept up-to-date with any changes to the charity or its trustees. A copy of the charity's annual report and accounts must also be submitted to the Charity Commission with the annual return, if the charity's income exceeds £25,000 per year.

Ofsted and the Early Years Foundation Stage

Chesil Bank Pre-School is registered as a childcare provider with Ofsted. Ofsted inspect and regulate the quality and standards of care and education in childcare settings against the outcomes and requirements of the Early Years Foundation Stage. The Early Years Foundation Stage is a mandatory framework for all registered childcare providers and schools caring for children from birth to five years. It aims to ensure that all childcare services provide a safe and secure environment for children and support children's learning and development through carefully planned play activities that are fun and appropriate to their needs. The trustees of our charity jointly form the 'registered person' with Ofsted and have overall responsibility for ensuring the childcare provision complies with the requirements of Ofsted registration and the Early Years Foundation Stage. As part of your induction you will need to ensure you are aware of these requirements. For the most part, the requirements will be delivered through the effective leadership of the staff at the setting; particularly the Manager, who will take charge of the day-to-day running of the provision. Whenever there is a change to the charity trustees who make up the 'registered person', a notification form (EY3) must be completed to inform Ofsted. Ofsted will carry out a number of checks to determine that the trustees are suitable to provide childcare; including a criminal records check. Each new trustee will need to complete a declaration and consent form (EY2) to allow Ofsted to carry out an enhanced criminal records check. All trustees have shared responsibility for the childcare provision. However, one individual, usually the Chair, will be the 'nominated person', and act as the main contact between Ofsted and the trustees. At Chesil Bank Pre-School, Phillipa Gowansr, acts as the nominated person.

Safeguarding children

Chesil Bank Pre-School is committed to ensuring that children have a safe, positive environment where they can learn and develop. It is the duty of the trustees to ensure that all staff and volunteers are also committed to children's well-being and safety; are clear about their responsibilities to safeguard and promote children's welfare; know the procedures for highlighting any concerns; and have appropriate guidance and training to undertake their roles. Sharon Pugh and Laura Farnham have both undertaken level 3 safeguarding courses and are proactive in ensuring all safeguarding measures are in place.

Health and safety

The charity regards the management of health and safety as an integral part of its activities and as a management priority. Please refer to the charity's health and safety policies.

Confidentiality and data protection

As a trustee of the charity you will come into contact with a variety of confidential personal information about staff, children, families and other volunteers. You must ensure that this information is treated with absolute confidentiality at all times and that you do not share personal information unless you are legally required to, or have obtained consent from the individual whom it regards. Otherwise you could breach the Data Protection Act, which provides strict rules in this area. Please refer to the charity's confidentiality and information sharing policies.

Expenses

Trustees are entitled to be reimbursed for any reasonable expenses they incur that are necessary to enable them to carry out their trustee duties for Chesil Bank Pre-School. The expenditure will only be approved by the committee and reimbursed if it has been incurred exclusively for the charity's work whilst carrying out a trustee role. Expected expenses should be discussed with the chairperson and committee prior to any money being paid out to ensure that reimbursement is likely.

Liability

Liabilities can occur for trustees if they commit a criminal offence; do not comply with statutory duties; fail to follow the rules of the charity's governing document; breach the terms of an agreement or contract; or carry out, or authorise, a wrongful act.

Chesil Bank Pre-School is an unincorporated charity. This means that the committee of trustees may be liable for actions they take in the charity's name, particularly if they have acted wrongly or if the charity does not have sufficient assets to meet a liability. However, if the trustees act lawfully and in accordance with the charity's Constitution, this personal liability is rare. It is also the charity's policy to put an appropriate level of reserves and insurance cover in place to safeguard against this situation. Chesil Bank Pre-school has a reserve fund of approximately 6 months running costs and has insurance with Royal Sun Alliance.
